CubeMatch Expands Its Spanish Operations

Dublin, Ireland – June 2026

CubeMatch, a leading global consultancy specialising in change and transformation for the financial sector, is pleased to share that it has expanded its operations in Spain and moved into a new office in Madrid, marking another important step in the firm's continued growth across the EMEA region.

This development strengthens CubeMatch's ability to successfully support clients by deepening its Spanish market expertise while drawing on the scale and capability of its international network. It also reflects the firm's ongoing investment in its people, its client relationships, and its focus on delivering meaningful, measurable change.

With nine locations across the world, CubeMatch provides specialist advisory and change delivery services to leading organisations navigating regulatory, operational, and digital transformation. The Madrid location will serve as a strategic hub to further support clients in Spain and across the broader European market.

CubeMatch's growth strategy remains focused on building strong local teams, fostering long term client relationships, and delivering solutions that drive sustainable impact.

CubeMatch CEO Tom Melville said: "Our Madrid location marks an important step in our continued growth journey. It increases our delivery capacity, strengthens our presence in key markets, and positions us to better support clients navigating complex change. Most importantly, this achievement is a testament to our people. Their expertise, commitment, and drive are what make expansion possible. Together, we are building a business that powers meaningful change for our clients globally."
